EXLIBRIS 2023-24

LIBRARY IS THE LUXURY ENJOYED BY LITERATE PEOPLE

Library is a sacred place where the conscious reader travels in the realms of Literary dimensions: Discovering places, Meeting personalities, Understanding Characters and situations. The journey through books adds to the young reader's knowledge, wisdom, experience and skills.

MULTILINGUAL STORY:

To have another language is to possess a second soul

The little Sagarites showcased their multilingual ability to integrate words from Hindi, and other regional languages like Bengali, Marathi, Gujarati and Bihari etc into a cohesive narrative. It promoted creativity, language exploration and vocabulary enrichment among Class-I students.

DICTIONARY WORD HUNT:

Words, so innocent and powerless as they are, as arranged in a dictionary, how potent they become on the tongues of those who use them.

Junior sagarites of class II enjoyed reading story books and participated in various library activities like 'Dictionary Word Hunt.'

The students were to find certain words in the dictionary as fast as possible. Then they would call out the correct page number. The first to do so would be declared the winner.

Through this activity the young students learnt to use a dictionary correctly and also to locate the meanings of the complicated words.

GUESS THE TITLE:

Book Titles are a window to the world of Literature Reading sparks intellect and imagination.

A fun-filled learning activity “GUESS THE TITLE” was conducted for the students of Class III. The students tried to match the 'Title' of their favourite stories with the 'Clues' related to the story. The activity aimed at enhancing the reading and comprehension skills of students. The students enjoyed the activity and became familiar with the Classic book titles.

READER'S THEATRE:

Great Theatre is about challenging how we think and encouraging us to fantasize about a world we aspire to create.

Role plays are the time tested means to make the children learn to admire, analyse and create values out of literary writing. They learn to understand the characters, appreciate or abhor their responses to the tribulations trials in life and respect their learning.

NEWS AND VIEWS:

Sagarities participated in group reading of newspapers and learnt about the importance of print media. They learnt how to read the various columns :editorial, headlines, local news, classified ads and weather updates etc.

They developed an understanding of the varied newspaper segments such as city news, global news, sports news, editorial...., furthermore rejoiced the activity of arranging the newspaper segment under their respective heads and performed newspaper collage formation activity.

Wisdom is the profoundest in the platter where the food is books

Through the “Book Buffet “activity, Class VII Sagarites embarked on a literary journey, creatively intertwining literature with culinary art. By representing the elements of various genres on favorite food items, the learning objectives aimed to foster genre exploration, analytical thinking, creative expression and collaborative engagement among peers. As a result, students not only deepened their understanding of story elements but also enhanced their critical thinking, creativity and communication skills, creating an immersive and enjoyable literary experience that celebrated the joy of reading and storytelling.

BOOK BUFFET:

G20 REVIEWS:

One Earth, One Family, One Future

The 18th G20 Summit was held in New Delhi, India on September 09th and 10th, 2023. To Celebrate this glorious occasion and to create awareness among students regarding G20, various library activities like Report Writing, Chart and Collage Preparation, MCQs, Quiz, PowerPoint Presentation based on G20 Theme, Logo, G20 Countries and G20 Presidency were conducted in SPS libraries throughout the session.

LITERARY GENERS:

In the world of literature, the genres paint stories in diverse hues

The Sagarites had a fun filled literary activity in which they researched books in smaller groups and discussed the genres and subgenres of each book.

After thorough discussion, the group would reach a consensus, students penned down the key features of each book and its genre. The activity helped students to distinguish fiction, non-fiction, poetry, drama and Biography and Autobiography.
